

Press release

New managing director with aluminium systems supplier HUECK

As of 9 May 2017, Thomas Polonyi (53) joins Eduard Hueck GmbH & Co. KG in Lüdenscheid as managing director of the well-established aluminium systems supplier. The experienced manager succeeds long-standing managing director Thomas Utsch who will leave the company on 30 June 2017 at his own request in order to pursue new entrepreneurial activities.

Polonyi can look back on a career in various national and international companies and last held the position of "President Sectional Doors & Docking EMEA" with Assa Abloy Entrance Systems AB, the Swedish specialist for door and gate systems. Before that, Polonyi was managing director of ThyssenKrupp Bausysteme GmbH.

“Shareholders and advisory board would like to thank Mr Utsch for his much-appreciated work in the course of the last eight years,” says Dr Michael Hartmann, member of the advisory board of Eduard Hueck GmbH & Co. KG. In cooperation with the management and staff Utsch successfully launched the company’s re-orientation and now will support the transition in the company’s management. “The recruitment of Thomas Polonyi provides us with an excellent CEO with long-standing experience in leading positions. Under his direction, Hueck will continue on its successful route with great commitment and in close cooperation with our customers.”

With more than 500 employees, Eduard Hueck GmbH & Co. KG in Lüdenscheid counts among Europe’s leading manufacturers of aluminium profile systems for windows, doors and façades as well as aluminium profiles for the processing industry. The expanding family-run enterprise is doing business on an international level and is the only system manufacturer operating its own foundry, pressroom and system development at a single site. The excellent international reputation of the company founded in 1814 is based on continuous innovation and more than 100 years of experience with processing aluminium.
